

STORY QUESTION CARDS

Summarize the story.

What might happen next in the story after reading the problem?

If you were the character in the story, what would you have done differently?

Find another way to solve the problem in the story.

How would you feel if you were in the main character's shoes?

How to use these cards

Print and laminate the question cards to make them durable for repeated use and put them in a box or a bag.

Distribute 4-5 cards per group when studying a story. Each group discusses and answers their assigned questions.

Put a set in the reading corner where students can freely pick a card and answer a question in their journal after reading a book.

How is the main character like someone you know?

---

How would you describe the problem the character is facing?

---

Why do you think the main character made that decision?

---

What are some different ways people could have reacted to that situation in the story?

---

What questions do you still have about the story we just read?

---

Why do you think the author wrote this story?

---

What lesson do you think the character learned in this story?

---

Think of a time when you faced a similar problem to the character; what did you do?

---

What will happen if the main character doesn't solve his problem?

---

If you could add a new character to the story, who would it be and why?

---

What do you think the character meant when he said _____?

---

How would the story change if it took place in a different setting?

---

Can you find any clues in the text that help you understand the character's feelings?

---

Change the story into a mind-map.

---

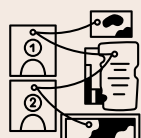

How would the story be different if the characters were animals instead of people?

---

Can you think of a different way to end the story?

---

How do you think the characters in the story are feeling right now?

---

How would you feel if you were one of the characters in the story?

---

What do you think will happen after the story ends?

---

How does this story compare to other stories we've read?

---

How does the setting of the story affect the characters?

---

How can we use what we learned from this story in our own lives?

---

What did you learn from this story?

---

Why do you think the author included this detail ... in the story?

---

What questions would you like to ask the author
about this story?

---

How would this story be different
if it was told from another character's point of view?

---

